CLERGY APPRECIATION DAY , October 14th

Presbyterian minister Fred Rogers, creator and host of television's "Mr. Rogers Neighborhood," once gave an address describing the time he was a student at Pittsburg Theological Seminary and attended a different church each Sunday in order to hear a variety of preachers. One Sunday he was treated to " the most poorly crafted sermon " he had ever heard." But when he turned to the friend who had accompanied him, he found her in tears.

"It was exactly what I needed to hear," she told Rogers.

"That's when I realized," he told his audience, "that the space between someone doing the best he or she can and someone in need is holy ground." The Spirit had transformed that feeble sermon for her —and as it turned out, for me too."

Unlike most workers who are evaluated once a year, clergy are often critiqued weekly after each worship service. It is not unusual to hear people say "the music was poor", "the hymn selection was awful" or "the sermon was boring." We would do well to remember that most spiritual leaders work hard to make worship a unique celebration each week. Father Chris once told me that if a sermon took less than 8 hours to prepare it should be torn up and a new one written.

Take time to tell your spiritual leaders how much their guidance has meant to you.
