Christmas now has come and gone! What seemed like an eternity getting here was over in a flash. Many good times happened—for instance.....

On December 23rd, the evening of carols, readings and supper at St. Luke's Church sponsored by the Woodlawn Ecumenical Ministry (WEM) was a wonderful evening of sharing with other churches in this area both in ministry and fellowship. We hope for many more occasions like this one..Many thanks to Dr. Parham and St. Luke's for hosting the event.

Also, at the beginning of Advent, Grace Episcopal Church hosted an evening of Advent music and readings in which the choirs of the Churches in the Patapsco Valley Regional Council participated ( including Christ the King's Choir) What a wonderful way to begin the Season!

Our Choir under the leadership of Dick Janes worked hard in learning a number of new anthems. There were so many, we had to hold some for next year so come and hear them next Christmas! In spite of some set-backs with our musical instruments, the Choir sang to the Glory of God as they always do. Many thanks for the music.

Beautiful Christmas Decorations began to appear throughout Christ the King as Carol Gooden, Robyn and Virginia Mayfield spent many hours arranging them in the church, narthex and Reed Hall. Thank you girls for a job well done!

Father Dunning and Father Bill brought the age-old Christmas message to us. We never tire of hearing it-over and over. Thank you to the Priests.

Bea Hooper, Jane Clark, Robyn Mayfield, and Barbara Reid-Williams arranged the lovely poinsettias to complete the christmas decorations in the Church and Virginia Mayfield trimmed the tree, All was ready to greet our new King, a babe in a manger.

The Rev . Charles Mercer, a deacon from St. Bartholomews Church, our mother church, consented to do a Deacon's Mass on Christmas Day so that those not able to attend the Christmas Eve Service could celebrate the birth of our Savior.

Both Christmas Eve Service and Christmas Day Service were a joy to all who attended them. We thank everyone who participated in them for making them special.

Now we look forward to the beginning of Lent (that's right, its just around the corner.) What will you be able to do in making this a special season? We need everyone's input!
