Prayer Shawls/ Blankets needed for Johns Hopkins Hospital

The Episcopal Diocese has provided prayer shawls for the patients that have been greatly appreciated by individuals from all over the world and that have brought spiritual comfort to those from many faith traditions. The supply is running low. If anyone has a knitting ministry please consider Johns Hopkins as a designated place. These are especially good for babies and young children so the size can be adjusted. Those who receive the blankets often enjoy knowing who created them so if you chose, please include a card with your name or the name of your parish. If you have any questions please call the Rev. Caroline Stewart, Episcopal Chaplain, at Johns Hopkins, 410-502-9796. (The yarn must be washable). Many thanks!!
